

NAMMA ANNUAL Membership – 2020

Our Mission:

To support and encourage Christian organizations in maritime ministry by building an association that provides professional development, fellowship, and advocacy.

Our Vision:

The maritime community will be spiritually and emotionally healthy through the robust engagement of our membership.

Our Core Values:

Spirituality – NAMMA encourages excellence in Christian ministry among seafarers, chaplains, and the maritime community while respecting the theological diversity of our members and those we serve.

Service – We encourage professional growth and development among our membership while providing support and resources when requested.

Integrity – We maintain transparency in all matters of service and business within our organization.

Collaboration – We strive to cooperate for the benefit of seafarers and the maritime community at large and encourage and support one another in our ministries.
